If it is thought that attendance can be justified as an integral part of how the course is taught and/or how learning is to be demonstrated and measured, there can be a point at which disability ted absences cannot be resonably accommodated. If at any point, the instructor and/or the student have any questions or concerns about this process, the Modified Attendance Agreement and/or the provision of this accommodation, the Learning Access Coordinator could be notified as possible so they can address the concerns and work to resolve them.

If the maximum number of allowed absences is exceeded during the semester, the student and instructor have the option to meet to discuss an appropriate course of action (suchaenswill be granted an incomplete; student will be advised to withdraw from the course; the number of absences allowed will be reviewed, etc.). The Learning Access Coordinator can be informed as soon as possible to work with the instructor and studenbt come to a reasonable solution.
